

The image shows the Beurer ME 90 Mobile EKG device, a small white handheld device with a digital display showing a heart rate of 72 bpm, date 6-18, and time 10:30. It is connected via Bluetooth to a smartphone displaying the Beurer CardioExpert app interface. The app shows a heart rate of 62 bpm and a graph of heart rate over time. A diagram illustrates the device's connectivity to both a smartphone and a PC. A circular inset shows a man holding the device. Another circular inset shows a heart rate graph with the text 'RHYTHM AND WAVE DETECTION'. A badge in the top right corner states 'PLUS X AWARD' and 'BESTES PRODUKT 2016/2017'.
